ANNIE is based on the 1924 comic strip Little Orphan Annie by Harold Gray which, in turn, was inspired from the poem Little Orphant Annie by Indiana's own, James Whitcomb Riley. (the gravesite of this of the "Hoosier Poet" overlooks the city from "The Crown" of Crownhill Cemetery)

The original Broadway production opened in 1977 and ran for nearly six years. It won seven Tony Awards including Best Musical and has become a favorite of many performers and musical theatre lovers. I was Annie's age-10 going on 11- when the show first opened (yes—you can do the math!) Seeing a child as the lead who drove the show and hearing that voice coming out of Andrea McArdle was life-changing. Although I didn't have the pleasure of seeing it on Broadway, I remember wearing out the cast album and attempting to belt tomorrow from my childhood bedroom. Years (and years) later, I was fortunate enough to meet Ms. McArdle. (see picture below) The 10-year-old in me was freaking out and the adult stood in awe--I am still star-struck!

The musical tells the story of a spunky girl whose sunny optimism rarely fails to affect adults, literally turning them into better people. Only a few adults in her world – including the orphanage director, Miss Hannigan – are unimpressed by Annie's positive nature. But Annie isn't a girl set on cheering up the world. She is on a quest to find her parents, whom she firmly believes are somewhere out there -- just temporarily separated from her. As a result, she is vulnerable to the greediness of others and needs protection from those who would exploit her. No child today should ever feel unwanted but rather, loved but people who care for their every need. Mr. Warbucks is one such person. He finds in himself the capacity to sacrifice his wants for the needs of a child in his care. To me, ANNIE is a story that affirms every child deserves to feel cherished for their unique worth.

Thank you for supporting the Bishop Chatard Theatre Department and showing this cast and crew that they are valued and loved. The world can seem gray and lonely at times for children and adults alike, but Annie teaches us that we can stick out our chin and grin and say, "I love you tomorrow-you're always a day away!"
Enjoy the show—bet your bottom dollar that you will!

Meet the Cast

Huck Armbruster is a freshman and is elated to help bring you Annie as a dog catcher, a judge, a foxy artist, and a voice.

Emma Clare Becker is a freshman and this is her first production at Chatard. She is playing Molly and is so excited for everyone to see the show! Her favorite memory from the show is all the fun rehearsals with her fellow orphans. She would like to thank her parents for supporting her and everyone involved in putting on this production. Enjoy the show!

Oella Berty is a sophomore and is super excited to be a part of Annie. She is playing the role of Perkins as well as other ensemble characters. This is her third show and her favorite theater memory is hanging out with her friends during rehearsals. She would like to thank Andie for continuing to encourage her to be in the shows. Also, she wants to thank her sister and her parents for all the support they give her. Enjoy the show!

Emma Bishop is a freshman and is so excited to be playing the Appleseller. She has always loved musicals, and is thrilled to have the chance to be in one.

Kiera Brothers is a sophomore and is happy to be playing the role of Annette. Her favorite theatre memories are laughing and singing with her friends during sitzprobe and getting to perform for the archdiocese's middle schoolers as their matinee performance. She would like to thank her parents and family for always supporting and encouraging her, and her former director Mrs. Thornburg who cultivated her love for theatre.

Elizabeth Burrows is a freshman and is so excited to be playing Kate. She would like to thank Mr. Z, Ms. Holly, and Mr. Duray for helping everyone make the show the best it can be. She says thank you to her friends and fellow cast members for all of the memories. She would also like to thank her family for all of their support! Elizabeth has been especially thankful for being able to perform and laugh with her fellow Orphans, who are such an amazing squad to be with.

Ellie Christenberry is a senior and is very excited to be playing Miss Hannigan in Annie! While it's very bittersweet for her being her last show and all, she is so excited to bring this character to life as it's been her dream role since she was 10! She has been in 5 Chatard shows acting, 2 shows as crew and most recently was Mom in Leaving Iowa. Her favorite theatre memory was taking on the role of Grandma Addams in The Addams Family and having so much fun preparing for the role alongside her best friends. She would like to thank her family for supporting her always and Mr. Z & Ms. Holly for helping her realize what she wants to do in the future!

Lilly Dangler is a sophomore. She is very excited to be playing the role of Harold Ickes. She is also super excited to be a part of this production. Lilly has always loved theatre and is super happy to be able to do this with her friends. She has enjoyed all the fun memories that this theatre program has given her. Lilly, especially, appreciates the confidence that theatre has brought out of her. She'd like to thank her mom, who has always been one of her biggest role models. Lilly would also like to thank her dad, for all that he has done for her. Enjoy the show!

Jackson Donnelly is a senior and he is super excited to be playing the part of Oliver Warbucks! His favorite thing about BCHS theatre is all the fun he has been able to have while being in the production of several plays and musicals.

Maria Dudley is a Sophomore and is pleased to play Mrs. Greer and a Boleyn sister in Annie. A favorite memory is waiting for rehearsal to start and playing hangman in the music room with her fellow cast members. She would like to thank her family and friends for helping her take part in the musical.

Michael Eble is a senior and is thankful to be a part of Annie. He is part of FDR's cabinet, Santa Claus, the dog catcher, and servant to Warbucks. A favorite memory of his was reading the lines and blurting out somebody else's line by accident. He would like to thank Jackson Donnelly for encouraging him to join.

Annika Eble is a sophomore and is overjoyed to be a part of Annie as Mrs. Pugh. She loves getting into character by developing her own thought up backgrounds for the characters she plays. She also enjoys spending time with the other members of the theatre department, since they are all delightful!

Molly Faris is a sophomore and is so excited to be playing Tessie! She loves being a part of the BCHS theatre community, and has especially enjoyed hanging out with the other orphans. She would like to thank her acting coach, Moosey (for helping with auditions, dancing, and running lines), and her sister (for creating him).

Abby Fix is a senior and is thrilled to be playing Grace Farrell in Annie! She has previously been the costumes crew head for the fall plays and Addams Family and been in the cast for Oklahoma and Fiddler on the Roof. She has also directed one and been casted in multiple one acts. Her favorite theater memories are dancing backstage with friends, pre rehearsal food runs, and tech week shenanigans. Abby would like to thank the Ms. Holly, Mr. Z, the Durays, and the crews for their constant support and hard work, her friends and family for also being supportive and making this theater experience unforgettable, her co thespian president Lena for being her day 1, and God for making all things possible. Thank you for supporting our theater department! Enjoy the show!

Jules Frank is a junior and is thrilled to be playing Cecile in Annie. After working on costume crew for Radium Girls and The Addams Family, she is excited to finally be on stage. One of her favorite memories is the late-night rehearsals filled with laughter and Nana cookies. She would like to thank Andie Papish for always sharing her love of theatre and reminding her it's okay to be silly, and her mom for always supporting her in everything she does.

Dane-Laurie Isaac is a freshman and is so excited to be part of the ensemble. She been wanting to do this for a long time since she saw the Descendants movie.

Oliver Lam is very excited to once again be on the stage as several characters, including President Franklin Roosevelt! Oliver's favorite memory of the show is singing a parody song about polio written by a friend. Oliver would like to thank his friends and family for supporting him throughout his theater journey, especially his brother Ben, for inspiring him to join theater.

Grace Lloyd is a senior who has been involved in every theater production in her time here, doing crew for the plays and acting in the musicals. She will be playing Morgenthau and is in the ensemble. Grace's favorite theater memory is going out for sushi with her friends after Leaving Iowa.

Kate Lowry is so excited to be playing Howe and ensemble in Annie. This is Kate's third theater production at Chatard, but her first in an acting role! Her favorite theater memories are Chatard are pre-show traditions with the cast and crew!

Clare Murphy is a Freshman and is so excited to be playing Connie Boylan/servant. She loves hanging out with everyone on set and singing behind the scenes with everyone!

Andie Papesh is a sophomore at BCHS and is beyond excited to be playing Annie in Bishop Chatard's production of "Annie." She has wanted to be in this musical since she was a kid, so this is really a dream come true. "God makes everything possible, i'm so grateful he gave me this opportunity," Andie says. Special thanks to Oella, her best friend, for always supporting and loving her. Other thanks go to DFTB, Nana, her siblings, Elijah, Mr. Moore, her cast and crew members, Mr. Duray, Miss Holly, and Mr. Z. Her favorite part of theater this year was making friendships that will last a lifetime. "Thank you all so much for your love and support! We hope you enjoy the show!!"

Aly Polackin is a senior and is so grateful to be playing Lily St. Regis in this year's production of Annie. You may remember her as Katherine Wiley from Radium Girls, or Alice Beineke from The Addams Family. Her favorite memory from BCHS Theater is playing the role of Alice in last year's production, where she crawls on the dinner table! She would like to thank her parents for always being supportive, her brothers for always putting up with her, and her dogs for always being there for cuddles.

Madi Robinson is SO SO EXCITED to be July the orphan in Bishop Chatard's performance of Annie. She is a sophomore and has been in three other shows here at Chatard. She was in Radium girls and Addams Family freshman year, and featuring in Leaving Iowa as Winifred the mechanic. She has been in theatre since she was a child, it is her favorite activity to do and watch. Madi's favorite memory is when the orphan group was working on Dressed (Children) and we got our jump-kick-line down. She would like to thank her parents and her friends, especially Molly for being her buddy during the orphan scenes.

Morgan Rusbasan is super excited to be a part of her first Chatard musical, making this her #2 Chatard show to finish freshman year! She is playing the role of Joanne Johnson. Since her role as Cart Chaser in Leaving Iowa, she has been loving her theater experiences so far from Senior One Acts in the winter, and hanging out with her friends backstage during Annie. Morgan has idolized Chatard musicals since she was younger, and she thanks her parents, friends, and directors for their never-ending support in fulfilling that dream.

Sofia Strashovski is a freshmen and is overjoyed to play the part of Sophie in the ensemble in Bishop Chatard's 2025 production of Annie. Her favorite memory from the show is when they worked on NYC where all the cast members had fun learning the dance together. This is her fourth musical, and first at Bishop Chatard. Sofia is incredibly grateful for all the directors who have worked and helped make this show possible. She also wants to thank her friends and family for all the support they have given her.

Andrew Taylor is a junior. After his ghoulish performance in The Addams Family last year, he is proud to announce his return to the stage promoting the "Oxydent Hour of Smiles", fully dressed as Bert Healy in this year's production of Annie! When he's not singing with the Boylan sisters, he's setting things up on the volleyball court. Andrew would like to thank his family, friends and cast mates for their endless support of him. Don't forget to brush your teeth and Smile, Darn ya, Smile!

Addy Valiquett is a Freshman and is so excited to be a part of the ensemble of Annie. She has worked hard, and she is so happy that the cast and crew can finally share this production with the community.

Kaydence Watkins is a senior this year and is very excited to play as Pepper, the orphan in the musical. She previously worked in crew as a front of house member along with working in concessions. Her favorite member while working in the theatre department is working in the one acts during Dimwits and Dungeons.

Avery Weaver is a Freshman and is so excited for her first musical at Chatard with the Amazing cast. She fell in love with theater when she was in second 2nd Grade. This will be her second performance at BCHS. She is so excited to be in the musical Annie. She would like to thank all her friends and family that support her.

Maddie Welty is so excited to be playing the role of ensemble in this year's production of Annie! Maddie is a sophomore and has loved all the memories she has made with the cast. She would like to thank her best friend Avery for always supporting her. She has loved getting to know so many new people. She hopes you love the show!

Millie is ecstatic to be playing Sandy in this production of Annie! She has played the role before so she thankfully knows all her lines (Bark!). She would like to thank her owner Mrs. Eckart for being her agent and the cast and crew for all the love, support, and treats. Enjoy the show (Bark!)

Meet the Crew

Eli Acklin is ecstatic to be building for our annual school musical. He would like to let you all know “that the sun will come out tomorrow” and to enjoy the musical.

Trent Blume is a sophomore and is excited to be the assistant stage manager and to make more memories with friends.

Ellie Burchard is a senior this year. This is her third time being in Costumes Crew and she has loved being part of such a dedicated program. She is proud of all crew and cast members, especially the seniors, for all the hard work they have put into these shows over the years. She’d like to thank her friends for getting her back into theater in the first place. Ellie also wants to thank her family, mainly her parents, for supporting her in all that she does. Ellie has enjoyed being involved and she is thankful for the opportunity to deepen her connection to her peers through the love of performing arts.

Amia Collins is a sophomore and is so excited to be a part of crew and her favorite memory is when the cast is getting ready for the show and are singing songs or just chatting about the most random things. She would like to thank her parents and her closest friends especially when she was at her lowest time they were always there for her and know how to make her feel better.

Lily Conard is a junior and is so excited to be a part of house crew for the musical.

Julia Dunn is a senior at Bishop Chatard who is happy to be a part costume crew for this musical! Her favorite memory from BCHS theatre has been acting in, and now directing the Senior One Acts with her fellow peers and friends. She would like to thank her parents for supporting her throughout her time in BCHS theatre and for anyone reading this for coming to see the show!

Daniel Fisher is a sophomore and is excited to be a member of the paint crew. His favorite part of BCHS theatre is meeting new people and seeing his friends perform.

Maddie Harrell is a junior and is so excited to be in costume crew. She loves to see the process of how everything works in a show.

Juliette Hatcher is a freshman at Bishop Chatard and is beyond excited to be part of the Crew for Annie! Juliette has played various roles, from Pumbaa in Lion King Jr. and Pabbie in Frozen Jr. to her debut high school role as the Museum Assistant in Leaving Iowa. She now has found a love for putting in work behind the curtain. She would like to thank everyone who has helped make this production so amazing!

Lucy Heslin is a sophomore who could not be more excited to be a part of costume crew for her first show at Chatard! Although she believes that the best memories will come from seeing the production come together, she has loved getting to know new people who are helping out with costume crew. She would like to thank her family and closest friends who pushed her to be a part of this; she truly could not have done it without them.

Ophelia Hileman is a sophomore who is thrilled to be a part of costume crew! This is her second year being involved with the show and she is so grateful for all the people she has met through the process. A favorite memory of hers through BCHS theatre was seeing The Addams Family finally come together on show night last year. She would like to thank her family and friends for their support of her on crew.

Reece Hovermale is a junior and is so excited to be painting as a crew member. I want to thank my family, friends, and the other crew members. It wouldn't have worked out without you.

Georgia Kramer is very excited to be stage manager for her 6th production at Chatard. She is forever grateful for the love she has received from her community and truly appreciates all that her family has done for her.

Clare LeMark is a junior at Chatard and is a part of the costumes crew! Clare has been part of the Chatard theater program when she was a freshman in Fiddler on the Roof and Radium Girls and has had so much fun in the process. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Shayli Lopez-Ayala is extremely happy to help out with the musical by being part of build crew. She would like to thank the people that convinced her to join.

Caroline Mason is so excited to try out props crew for this performance instead of being on stage with the big lights! Sophomore year has made Caroline experiment on and off stage helping the community enjoy the show. Caroline's favorite memory so far in Bishop Chatard theater was when each person says something special during "circle time" before the show. Caroline believes Chatard does wonderful traditions before each show to make everyone super jazzed and joyful for their performance.

Ava McCurdy is a junior who has enjoyed trying something new with different parts of crew!

Meg McNamar is a senior and is so excited to be a part of the show by building sets. Meg has enjoyed going to the shows during her time at Chatard. She decided to join this year because she finds likes building and creating.

Emily Meckauskas is a senior and is the head of sound crew. She is excited to lead her wonderful sound crew. She has been on sound crew since freshman year and has been head since sophomore year. Sound crew has been the highlight of her high school and is feeling bittersweet about her parting with the crew.

Sean O'Gara is a sophomore, and he is happy to be on set crew for Annie! For the last three shows at Chatard, he has been a cast member, so this is his first time doing crew. His favorite theatre memory is getting to cuss multiple times during the script reading of Leaving Iowa before the lines were cut.

Matthew Olivares plays the amazing bass guitar in the pit.

Nathan Prevost is so excited to be a part of build crew for this year's musical, Annie. This is his first time being apart of theatre and he is loving it so far. His favorite theatre memory is messing around with Sean, James and Shayli. The people he would like to thank are Madi for convincing him to join, and Shayli and James for being in build crew with him.

Addie Sandifur is a senior and painter for the set. She had enjoyed being a part of crew for for the past 3 years.

Katie Schaffer is a freshman at Bishop Chatard on the costuming crew for Annie. She is excited to start her high school theatre career with this classic musical and can't wait to see where she goes from here!

Zach Smith is a senior and is thrilled to be on sound crew and not lights. His favorite memory is playing Super Smash Bros backstage with Simon Lehmkueler during Radium Girls. An honorable mention is being in Simon's One Act and showing high levels of distaste to his scene parter, Grace Isaakson. He would like to thank Georgia Kramer and Trent Blume for having lots of fun backstage goofing around and laughing. Others he would like to thank are the ones who got him into Theater because he could never ask for another group of people to spend two weeks of his time with.

Lena Stickel is a senior at Bishop Chatard and will be on sound crew for the spring musical, Annie. Lena has been a part of almost all the Bishop Chatard productions since her Freshman year, both in the cast and the crew. While she loves to sing and dance, she has discovered that she loves learning more about the behind-the-scenes work and watching the actors come to life on stage. I would like to thank all the seniors and friends that she has been with since her freshman year, as well as ones that she met along the way. Her favorite theater memory at Chatard was singing "Uh Oh" in her Sophomore year production of All I Really Need To Know I Learned In Kindergarten.

Nat Stringfield is a freshman who is on paint crew. This is her first time joining the musical and is very happy she got to be a part of it.

Emma Turner is junior and is so excited to be a part of house crew for the musical.
